FROM THOSE WONDERFUL FOLKS WHO GAVE YOU THE BIG DRAW
and
THE RUSKIN COMMUNITY MURAL

The South Shore Arts Council invites lovers of all the arts to a free presentation by noted watercolorist and teacher Art Sarlin to learn about the “Three Masters of the Renaissance – Michelangelo, Da Vinci and Raphael.”

The meeting is scheduled for Thursday, March 19 at 6:30 PM and will take place at Hillsborough Community College on Shell Point Road in Room 201.

Sarlin, a Signature Member of the Florida Watercolor Society studied at the Chicago Art Institute and the Academy of Art in Chicago. He has had a long and distinguished career as a commercial artist displaying his impressive talents on major national accounts. After relocating to Florida he taught at the Ringling School of Art in Sarasota and presently offers classes at the Art Club of Sun City Center.

The meeting is open to all community members who want to learn more about the diverse arts now flourishing in the southern region of the county and how they can become more connected to these offerings via the SouthShore Arts Council.

For more information, contact Pete Smith, President 813-215-6535.
